

RISING STARS SPRING SKILL CLINICS

JG's top skill trainers will work on basketball fundamentals for the serious girls and boys basketball player during the spring season. Sessions will begin the week of April 5, 2010 and end May 27, 2010.

GENERAL SKILLS CAMP: Joy of the Game believes in teaching the fundamentals of the game to kids at young ages. Our general skills classes have been the building blocks that has helped Rising Stars develop into a nationally recognized team program as well as help almost 20 kids per year play college basketball. Almost every Rising Stars Player that has gone on to be a successful high school player began in our General Skills Camp.

The class will specifically teach dribbling skills, dribble moves, passing skills, shooting and offensive footwork. The class will work with kids from beginner to advanced.

Monday, Tuesday & Thursday Nights
7:00 PM – 8:00 PM Boys & Girls 3rd – 6th Grade
$175 for 8 sessions and $325 for 16 sessions

GUARD CAMP: This class was developed for the more advanced player to continue to improve and advance his/her knowledge of the guard position. Players will be working on ball handling, passing, shooting and guard skills necessary to play at a high level. Kids will be broken into age appropriate groups. The class will be taught by Kurt Vahle, former Trinity University player and one of the best young instructors in Chicago who has run camps for the Chicago Bulls Academy and Joy of the Game

Thursday Nights
7:00 PM – 8:00 PM Boys & Girls 7th – 11th Grade
$200 for 8 sessions and $360 for 16 sessions

BIG MAN CAMP: Individual improvement through fundamental work that will teach post play, offensive footwork and shooting, individual moves, rebounding and other big man concepts to help with interior play. The class will be taught by Jim Edmondson. A veteran coach of AAU teams, Jim is in his fifth year with Rising Stars. Jim is also a former standout player at Northern Illinois

Thursday Nights
